Matthew

Matthew Powell.

Benjamin Powell (-1784)

Matthew Powell was his son. Matthew Powell married first Elizabeth Pruden " Married second Miss Frances Hill Woodley (my grandmother) who had previously married James Crocker, and Samuel Thomas. The marriage to Mrs. Thomas by Matthew Powell was 6/23/1842 and my mother was the only child of this marriage.
Matthew Powell died in May 1843.

See Va. Historical Magazine Oct. 1896, chapter headed "The Cocke Family in Va." Page 213. "James Powell Cocke resided at Malvern Hill and it was he no doubt that built the old colonial house now standing there. He appears to have been county surveyor of Henrico Co. and his name occurs on the vestry records of Henrico Parish as vestryman as early as 1731 and frequently afterwards. It is a matter of conjecture how the name Powell was introduced into the Cocke family. Thomas Cocke married Mary Bradsher or Brazure, in Isle of Wight Co. Her mother may have been a Powell or it may have been that Margaret Cocke, wife of Thomas Cocke was a Powell.
There lived in the latter half of the 17th century in Isle of Wight Co. Va or in Nansemond Co. a Major James Powell, who had (as we have learned from his will) a sister named Margaret. In Thomas Cocke's will he bequeathed to his daughter a gold ~~Singapore ring marked "J. P. and M. C."~~ ~~which had probably belonged to her mother Mary Bradshure~~ ring marked "J. P. and M. C." which had probably belonged to her mother Mary Bradshure Cocke and might have been a gift from James Powell. In this case he is supposed to be her mother's brother. At all events it is to be noted that Thomas Cocke married in Nansemond Co. in the neighborhood of Major James Powell. Thomas Cocke has a son names James and also one named Stephen. Now Stephen was a distinctly a name of the Powell family and it does not occur anywhere else either in Va. or in England in the Cocke family.

Sir Stephen Powell (a member of the Va. Co.) subscribed 37 and 10 shillings and paid 100. He was one of the six clerks of Chancery in London and was knighted at Theobalds, July 21st 1604, M. C. for Virginia Company 1609 and still living in 1619.

The name of Capt. Nathaniel Powell is one of the most prominent in "Capt.
John Smith's History" He calls him one of the first planters, a valiant soldier and not any in the country better known among them" Vol. 2- 68 Pg. About 1730 there was a descendant of Rivhard Cocke named Nathaniel. All of these facts are worthy of consideration.

These Powe ls were a famous group in the early period of Va. The first of them Major Anthony Powell was killed at St. Augustine Fle. in 1586 in the expedition of Sir Frances Drake.

In 1618 Capt. Nathaniel Powell was Gov. of Va. and was member of the Council in 1621 and was killed at Powell's Brook near Flower De Hundred (which is now Petersburg) in the Indian Massacre of 1622. He, Gov. Powell married a daughter of William Tracy, son of Sir John Tracy and it was about 1680 that Dorothy Cocke, daughter of Thomas Cocke of Castleditch Co, Hereford, England, married Viscount Tracy of Ireland. Her brother Charles Cocke, member of Parliament for the vcity of Worcester in 1691 married the niece of Lord Chancellor Somers.

Capt. William Powell was also famous at this time during the administration of Governor Yeardly. He was a member of the first house of Burgesses in 1619.
Capt John Smith in his "History mentions Capt. John Powell as "one of the first and leading adventurers in the planting of the fortunate Isle (The Barbadoes) and states that Capt. Henry Powell brought hither the first planters, 40 English and 6 or 8 negroes. William Powell left two sons, Cuthbert and Thomas who were living in Lancaster in 1660 and were the ancestor of the Powells of Lancaster and London Counties, Va.

See American Monthly Magazine, Feb. 1895, which contains a "Sketch of Leven Powell" (Read before the Albemarle Chapter of the DA. A. R. Univ. of Va.
March 22, 1894.) I have a photostat copy of this article on Leven Powell which I can send you .

The following is some information jotted down by my mother, the only child of the marriage of Matthew Powell and Frances Hill Woodley Thomas.

Matthew Powell was born in 1783 Or 84 as near as I can count. I dont know what his father's name was (I have since found it was Benjamin). My father Matthew Powell served in the was of 1812 and died in 1843 when I was one month old with Billious Cholic. He has a son names William and one named Henry James who had families and I think also two sons named Nathaniel and Stephen who died in early life. He also had a daughter named Margaret. All of these are old Powell names.

My father's mother was named Rhoda Bradley. She was the daughter of Col. Josiah Bradley, who came to this country from the Bermuda Islands during the insurrection of the slaves there. He owned several plantations, many slaves and several vessels. At the time of the Insurrection he only saved the slaves that were on the plantation on which his family resided. He put them and his family into boats and came to Virginia and settled in Isle of Wight Co.

Matthew Powell was married to his first wife in 1810. I have heard my mother say that my father was 60 yrs. old when I was born. As I was born in 1843 and he was 60 then, he must have been born in 1783. I don't know if his mother, Rhoda Bradley was the oldest daughter of Col Bradley but saying she was 20 yrs old when married that would go back to 1763. I doubt if she was born in this country so I think it must have been somewhere in 1760 or even 1750 that Col Bradley moved to America and settled in Isle of Wight Co.

Captain Nathaniel Powell, who was, says a contemporary, "born a gentleman and bred a soldier." He married a daughter of William Tracy (who brought a party of colonists to Virginia in 1620), came to the Colony in 1607, was appointed to the Council in 1621, and was, for a short time, Governor. With all his family he was killed by the Indians in the massacre of 1622. In 1626, Thomas Powell, his elder brother, and other brothers and sisters, all in England, petitioned the government in regard to his estate. They stated that William Powell, who had gotten possession of all of it in Virginia, was no relation.

Mrs. Lewis L. Chapman,

Mrs. G. Lloyd Bell of Suffolk, has given me your name as one who could help me trace the family history of my grandfather, Matthew Powell, so I am writing to know what your charge is for such work.

I have a good bit of information and records which I can give you to work with. I want this information for D. A. R. work and if there are qualifications for membership in the Colonial Dames. I am an interested member of the D. A. R. and am eager to have all of my lines worked out.

I shall be glad to hear from you in regard to this work.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Cooper:

My rate for research in the original records is $5.00 a day and expenses. However there is no expense charge for work in Isle of Wight.

Or, I could make you a flat rate for everything I could find on your ancestry with collateral lines on ten names for $100.00

If you wish any work done, let me know as soon as possible, for I am trying to plan my activities for the next few months.

Cordially yours,

About 1720 he went to Brunswick Co. VA.
He had son: JAMES POWELL (1740-1791) b: Brunswick Co., VA. who married: ALLSY (maiden name unknown) married in VA., & had eight children. After marriage, moved to Orange Co., N.C. about 1760-62.
later was granted land in Hertford Co., and moved there ..
By 1780 he had moved back to Orange Co.
In 1776-7 he served in Capt. James Martins Co., in expedition against Indians during the Revolutionary War. This company was made up of Virginians, but paid by State of N.C.
In 1782 with his wife and children, moved to Georgia & settled in was in Brunswick Co. VA, Orange Co. N.C., then to Glynn Co. NC. then Thomas Powell, who was in Isle of Wight Co. VA, to Brunswick Co. VA.

We found out from Courthouse Records that in 1726, Thomas Powell born Isle of Wight Co. VA, went to Brunswick Co. VA. about 1726 and that he was the 1st. Powell in Brunswick Co. VA. (do you know who he married?)

We also know that he was the son of Thomas Powell in Isle of Wight.
& that this Powell was son of: William Povell (1640-1695) & Elizabeth---

If you have any biographical information on these people who were in your area, or any added facts which we can use for our research, on anything to do with the Powell family. we would appreciate it

Dear Mrs. Loff,

I regret that it has taken so long to reply to your query concerning the Powells in Isle of Wight County. I received your letter when I visited the library last Wednesday. They found your letter in the unopened file.

I found in Virginia Wills and Administrations 1632-1800 by Clayton Torrence that a Thomas Powell made his will in Isle of Wight County in 1687/8 and a William Powell made his will in 1695 in IOW County which corresponds to the dates reflected in your correspondence. I am enclosing a copy of page 341 and 342 of above reference which lists all Powells from the counties in Virginia that have made wills during period 1632-1800. You might obtain copies of the desired wills from the respective courthouses. The Isle of Wight County Courthouse address is Box 110, Isle of Wight, Virginia 23397. I also found an extract of the wills for Thomas and William Powell in Wills & Administrations of Isle of Wight County, Virginia, 1647-1800 by Blanche Adams Chapman. I am enclosing page 2 of that reference. The will can be found on page 272 of Will & Deed Book #2 at IOW Courthouse. I am enclosing page 5 of same reference. The will for William Powell can be found on page 192 of Deed Book # 1 at IOW Courthouse.

I checked Cavaliers & Pioneers, Vol. 1 1623-1666 and found a Thomas Powell on the Eastern Shore in 1626. See pages 8, 9, 46, 76, 95, 119, 209. I am not sure all the references are for the same Thomas Powell. I checked Adventurers of Purse and Person Virginia and was unable to tie the references to Thomas Powell and William Powell to those mentioned above. I checked Marriages of Isle of Wight County, VA 1628-1800 by Blanche Adams Chapman and am enclosing page 38 that makes reference to some Powell marriages. The references refer to books at the Isle of Wight County courthouse. I checked Seventeenth Century Isle of Wight County Virginia by John Bennett Boddie and am enclosing pages 587, 601, 603, 625, which refer to William and Thomas Powell.

I hope that you might find some of the above information helpful and again accept our apologies for not answering your mail in a timely manner.

Sincerely,

G. T. Frost

was in Wayne County where he served as Senator 1808-1813, inclusive; and as Justice of Wayne Inferior Court, 1808-1814. Moving back to McIntosh County, he was the next year elected Representative in 1815, serving 1815 and 1816, again in 1820-21 and in 1831. He was Senator from McIntosh County, 1817-1820, inclusive, and 1836-37. He was President of the State Senate in the 1824 and 1825 annual sessions. He was elected a Justice of McIntosh Inferior Court and served 1817 until 1820 when he resigned; 1821-22 (resigned); 1834-36, 1838-41 (resigned), and re-elected in 1842 but declined to qualify. He was elected Sheriff in 1836 but soon after resigned.

Mr. Powell was a large land-owner, owning several plantations in both Wayne and McIntosh Counties, and owned many slaves. He was a stockholder and director in The Darien Bank.

A political quarrel developed between Mr. Powell and Gen. John Floyd of Camden county, which culminated in the death of Gen. Floyd's son, John F. Floyd, in Darien on Jan. 25, 1830. The latter with his bride was visiting in Darien, and was accompanying his wife and her sister on a visit to stores in Darien when they passed Mr. Powell with his riding whip, and without warning struck Mr. Powell with his riding whip, and the latter pulled out his pistol and shot Floyd on the spot; the dying man was taken into a store in front of which the encounter took place, but died in a few minutes. Mr. Powell was indicted for murder and on a change in venue was placed on trial in Chatham Superior Court in Savannah but was acquitted.

POWELL, JAMES

1740-1791

GLYNN

James Powell, a Revolutionary Soldier, was born about 1740 in Brunswick Co. Va., a son of Thomas Powell. The family emigrated to Virginia in the 1600s from England. James Powell's wife was named Ailsy, but her maiden name has not been learned. They were married in Virginia, and had eight children, birth-dates of only two being definitely known, viz:

1. Winifred b. c1762, m. ----- House.
2. William b. c1765, m. ----- (an Indian Princess).
3. James, Jr. b. c1768, m. 1st, Susan Burnett, 1789, dau of John; 2nd Martha Sneed, dau. of John.

4. Alexander b. 1771, m. Dorcas Dent Lived in Telfair Co.
5. Abraham F. b. 1773, m. (unknown). Lived in Telfair Co.
6. Joshua b. 1777, m. (unknown).
7. Thomas b. 1780, m. (unknown).
8. Allen B. b. 1783, m. Mary Calder, dau. of John.

After marriage, James Powell moved to Orange Co. N. C., and later granted land in Hertford Co. N. C., and moved there. By 1780, he had moved back to Orange County. In 1776-7 he served in Capt. James Martin's company in an expedition against the Indians during the Revolution; this company was made up of Virginians but was paid by the State of North Carolina (see Vol.I,p.183, Virginia Men in the Revolution; Virginia Magazine, 1904-5). Under Act of Feb. 17, 1783, he applied for bounty land in North Carolina, and stated he had served with the rank of lieutenant. In 1782, with his wife, six sons and one daughter, he moved to Georgia and settled in Glynn county where he granted land and in 1790 returned 1800 acres there for taxation. He served on the Glynn County Grand Jury in 1790. His will dated Aug. 25, 1790, was probated there shortly after his death in 1791, and devised his estate to the wife and children above named.

James Powell on moving to Georgia settled in what was then Liberty County in the portion that was later detached and added to Glynn County. He was elected Representative from Liberty County very soon after moving to Georgia, and served 1784 to 1789, inclusive. He also served on the Executive Council of the state in 1784, 1786-7 and 1789; members of the council were chosen from among members of the House of Assembly (legislature).

POWELL
- Report -

H.S. HOLMAN
706 Windsor Ave.
Lawrenceville, Va.
8/30/94 23868

Checking all wills and deeds for Powell in Brunswick County before the American Revolution, we find that Thomas Powell took up a patent for 125 acres here on Fountain's Creek in 1726. (Br. Co. History, p. 327). There may have been other patents for him, but, they're not in our records here. Samuel Harding sold ~~his son~~ ^{Powell} William ^{Powell} land on Fountain's Creek (150 acres) for 7£ in the 1740's. (Br. DB 2, p. 319). In 1749 Thomas Powell sold William Powell land on Fountain's Creek which was also adjoining Samuel Harding (Br. DB. 3, p. 562). Thomas also sold land to Charles Powell on Fountain's Creek, February 27, 1754. Thomas and his witness William Powell made their mark rather than signing. (Ibid.) The home tract where Thomas lived was given "for love" to his son James — all 261 acres — ~~in 1754~~ ^{in 1758} May 20, 1758. This was on Fountain's Creek too. Thomas Powell died in Brunswick County in 1756/57 leaving children: Charles, James, Sarah, Elizabeth, & Mrs Mary Green, & Douglas. James was made executor. (Br. W.B. 3, p. 194) The estate which included twenty-three head of cattle was appraised at 40£. (Br. W.B. 3, p. 195). Thomas' son William died in Brunswick County in 1760, and James Powell settled his estate also. (Br. Co. W.B. 3, p. 360). This was the extent of the activity of this family in our county's Public records of this period.
